Employee Handbook

TEST DOCUMENT FOR ENTERPRISE AI COPILOT • Fictional company policy

1. Annual Leave

Full-time employees receive 24 working days of annual leave per calendar year. Employees should submit annual leave requests at least 10 calendar days before the first day of leave. All leave requests require approval from the employee's direct manager. Unused annual leave is handled according to the company's HR policy.

2. Working Hours

The standard working schedule is Monday to Friday, from 8:30 AM to 5:30 PM. Employees receive a one-hour lunch break. Some teams may follow different schedules when approved by their department manager.

3. Remote Work

Eligible employees may work remotely up to three days per week with written approval from their manager. Employees must remain reachable during their agreed working hours and protect confidential company information when working outside the office.

4. Maternity Leave

Eligible employees may request 60 calendar days of maternity leave. Employees should contact Human Resources to confirm eligibility, required documents, and the applicable process before planning their leave.

5. Training Budget

Each employee may request up to AED 2,000 per calendar year for approved job-related training or professional certification. Requests must be submitted to the department manager before registration. Reimbursement requires proof of payment and successful completion, subject to HR approval.

6. IT Support

Employees should report laptop, software, or account-access problems to the IT help desk by email. Critical issues that prevent work should be reported immediately by phone to the IT support team. Employees must never share passwords or multi-factor authentication codes.

Important note: This is a fictional sample document created for software testing. It is not a real company's policy and should not be used as legal or HR advice.